This Company has received a charter giving advantages to the insured over any other Company, The 5th Section gives the Husband the privilege to insure his own life for the sole use of his Wife and Children, free from any claims of the representatives of the husband or any of his creditors.

Organized on purely mutual principles, the life members participate in the whole of the profits, which are declared annually. Besides, the applicant for life, when the annual premium is over $30, may pay one half in a

All claims for insurance against the Company will be paid within ninety days after proof of the death of the party is furnished. Slaves are insured for one or for five years, at rates which will enable all Slaveholders to secure this class of property against the uncertainty of life.

Slave insurance presents a new and interesting feature in the history of North Carolina, which will prove very important to the Southern States. The last four month's operation of this Company show very large amount of business-more than the Directors expected to do the first year-having already issued more

$50 REWARD.

ANAWAY from Matthew N. Strickland sometime in November 1847, Negro Man CALVIN, aged about Thirty years. He is a very black negro, and about five feet ten or eleven inches high. He has fine white teeth. He had been hired about Raleigh some two years before he ran away. Said boy, I believe, is lurking about Raleigh as he has a wife at Mr. Towle's. I will give the above reward for his apprehension and delivery to me or for his confinement in Raleigh Jail. BRYAN GREEN, For M. N. STRICKLAND. August 20, 1849
